For Immediate Release

Dave Sheldon to join CKPM-FM Tri-City Radio

April 13, 2016

PORT MOODY - Tri-City Radio is pleased to announce that Dave Sheldon will be joining the on-air lineup beginning April 25, 2016, as the afternoon host of 'The Dave Sheldon Show', airing 3-6 PM weekdays.

Well-known in the sports community as a unique commentator and personality, Dave has most recently been producing the "Sheldon On Sports" segment heard three times daily on CKPM-FM. Dave brings over fifteen years of broadcast experience to Tri-City Radio, with over a decade in the Vancouver market.

According to Program Director and Morning Host Rod MacBeth, "I am a big fan of how Dave relates to listeners. It's like your spending time with a good friend. I am excited on what the future holds with Dave as a part of our team!"

Dave Sheldon: "I am thrilled to call Tri-City Radio my home and would like to thank both Rod and Matthew for the opportunity. As a Port Coquitlam resident, I am excited not only to bring my show to the Tri-City area, but also throughout the Lower Mainland and online."

CKPM-FM 98.7, operating as Tri-City Radio, is based in Port Moody and can be heard throughout the lower mainland over-the-air, and worldwide at ckpmfm.com
